

CAITLIN POE

FIRM: Williams Mullen, Raleigh

HOMETOWN: Raleigh

UNDERGRAD: University of Georgia

LAW SCHOOL: University of Virginia School of Law, 2012

PRACTICED LAW: 10 years

FAMILY: Husband Christopher Poe, and children Poppy and Colin

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION: Go to bed earlier.

GO-TO STRESS RELIEVER: Exercise – movement is medicine!

BUCKET LIST: My husband and I love going to sporting events. Top of the list would probably be a Final Four or a Masters Sunday.

BIGGEST RISK: Moving down the street from my parents.

FAVORITE LAWYER JOKE: Lawyers don't get dumped, they just lose their appeal.

LAST SHOW BINGE-WATCHED: "Righteous Gemstones"

FAVORITE FICTIONAL LAWYER: Bob Loblaw (actor Scott Baio) from "Arrested Development."

LEGAL INSPIRATION: My grandfather, Don McLaughlin, is the coolest person I've ever known. He was a career FBI agent and attorney, and literally wrote the book for them on how to follow the Miranda rule. Later in life he was the judge of the Quantico moot court. He's deceased now, but I've got his Black's Law Dictionary on my office bookshelf.

BEST PROFESSIONAL ADVICE: "Facts animate legal principles." I received it, and now I give it.

FICTIONAL COURTROOM WHERE YOU'RE THE LAWYER: Defending the theory of evolution – not in the Scopes Monkey Trial, but in [TV sitcom] "It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia" when Mac convinces the gang it isn't real.

ALTERNATIVE CAREER: Luxury hotel management

DEFINE SUCCESS: With two little kids and two working parents, success is getting through a day without too many tears and without visible stains on my clothing.
