

AMY H. KINCAID

FIRM: Schell Bray, Greensboro

HOMETOWN: Gainesville, Georgia

UNDERGRAD: Clemson University

LAW SCHOOL: UNC Chapel Hill School of Law, 1998

PRACTICED LAW: 25 years

FAMILY: I met John Kincaid at Clemson University, and we have been married since August 1993. We have two daughters, Ellie and Emma.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION: To perform a daily act of kindness.

GO-TO STRESS RELIEVER: I jog about two miles in the park near my house by myself without any music or podcasts. It's just nice to be outside.

BUCKET LIST: Live in Spain for six months and learn conversational Spanish.

BIGGEST RISK: I only applied to one law school.

LEGAL WORK MYTH: Any attorney can draft a good will.

FAVORITE LAWYER JOKE: What do you get when you cross the Godfather with a lawyer? An offer you can't understand.

LAST SHOW BINGE-WATCHED: "Jessica Jones" (Disney/Marvel Series)

COMFORT FOOD: Spaghetti and meatballs

SPECIAL DISH: A filet from the Fresh Market cooked medium rare with Dale's Steak Seasoning cooked by my husband, John.

FAVORITE FICTIONAL LAWYER: Jack McCoy (actor Sam Waterston) on "Law & Order."

FAVORITE N.C. HANGOUT: We have a cabin on Badin Lake. There are so many fun things to do. We hike in the Uwharrie National Forest, boat, ride jet skis, and paddle board. At the end of last summer, we kayaked down the Uwharrie River and learned an important lesson. It's always important to check the water levels before kayaking, or you may end up hiking down the river with a kayak in tow instead!

LEGAL INSPIRATION: My family always discussed controversial issues at dinner. My father often told me to pick a side and prove my point. I got lots of practice and learned that I enjoyed winning those debates.

FICTIONAL COURTROOM WHERE YOU'RE THE LAWYER: I would cross-examine Jack Nicholson's character in "A Few Good Men." You can't handle the truth!

ALTERNATIVE CAREER: Pilot

DEFINE SUCCESS: "Success is liking yourself, liking what you do, and liking how you do it." – Maya Angelou
